Attachment A

From on or about September 19, 2006, through on or about November 27, 2006, in the District of Delaware, Douglas Fields and Jamir Richardson, the defendants, knowingly did execute and attempt to execute a scheme and artifice to defraud Commerce Bank, a federally insured financial institution, by negotiating at the bank stolen IRS refund checks.

AFFIDAVIT OF JOHN L. DAVIDS JR.

I, John L. Davids Jr, being duly sworn, depose and say:

1. Your affiant is employed as a Criminal Investigator with the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA), and has been so employed for nineteen years.
2. This affidavit is submitted in support of an application for a criminal complaint against Douglas Fields and Jamir Richardson for committing bank fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1344. The information contained in this affidavit is based upon my personal knowledge gained by reviewing various financial documents, interviewing witnesses and speaking with other law enforcement agents involved in this investigation.

Summary of the Offense

3. Since October of 2005, Douglas Fields was employed as a bank teller for Commerce Bank at the Limestone branch located in Wilmington, Delaware. Sometime in the summer of 2006, Fields met with Richardson a boyhood friend at an undisclosed location. During this meeting Richardson asked Fields if he could assist him with depositing some checks into accounts at Commerce Bank. Fields agreed to deposit the checks to "assist" a friend, and knew that the checks were Treasury checks. Fields would meet Richardson outside the bank and receive the checks with deposit slips in an envelope. Fields would then wait until he went to work and when the teller next to him would go on break, Fields would use that teller's computer to make the deposits. These deposits were made into accounts belonging to Richardson, his wife Tykesha English and three other individuals not yet located. In one instance a teller named Tiffany Myers-Barnes made a deposit for Richardson. Fields also made withdrawals from these accounts along with other individuals yet unidentified.

Discovery of the Fraud

4. Stacy Ioia, Senior Fraud Investigator, Commerce Bank reported to me that in late October of 2006, Ioia was reviewing reclamations of deposited United States Treasury checks on the Commerce Bank computer system. Reclamation occurs when the Treasury Department receives a report that a particular check is stolen and then that check is negotiated. The Financial Management Service, of the Treasury Department then reclaims the funds from the institution that accepted that check for negotiation. Ioia noticed several reclaimed IRS refund checks from the same Commerce Bank branch on Limestone Road, Wilmington Delaware. Ioia investigated further and found that one

Teller, Douglas Fields was involved in all of the deposits, of the stolen Treasury checks except one. During the course of her investigation Ioia was also able to access bank photographs of Fields making the deposits and using the assigned computer of another teller in an attempt to cover his activity.

The Fraud Scheme

5. Through my interviews and review of records of Commerce Bank, a federally insured financial institution, your affiant was able to piece together the following chain of events:

6. On September 19, 2006, Commerce Bank teller Douglas Fields, using the computer of teller Ratna Jewnarian, deposits three IRS refund checks totaling $6,063.17 into an account owned by Terrance Cook # 368362877.
